A MESSAGE TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Back in the 70's we never could have imagined... After starting out in a tiny shop near City Hall, we quickly figured out that applying our values to the way we did business would be B&H's business model. While we were not sure this would work in an industry not known back then for integrity, we were sure that this was the only way for us to conduct ourselves.

Through an absolute commitment to treating people right, and earning customers for life, we found what sounds like a simple formula for success. The words are easy, the doing is hard. With the tireless efforts of thousands of dedicated team members over the years who have been committed to B&H's principles, and with deep gratitude to G-d, B&H grew into what it has become today.

Since day one for all of us at B&H, the customer has come first. Which means that whatever you're here to build, produce, or create, we support you. It means we're here for you. That we'll always be that friend you know in the industry. We'll listen and help – offering advice you can count on – however we can, every step of the way.

So, no matter who you are – hobbyist or professional, student or expert – B&H is here to do more than sell you gear. We want to be a part of your creative journey, helping you feel sure about yourself and helping you succeed as our commitment to you as your creative partner.

Thank you for trusting us with your creative gear needs and for allowing us to serve you. We commit to earn your trust every day. We truly appreciate and value your support for so many years.

THE B&H FAMILY

“ I believed if I was always honest, people would come back — and here
we are today... ”

SAM GOLDSTEIN, CO-OWNER AND PRESIDENT

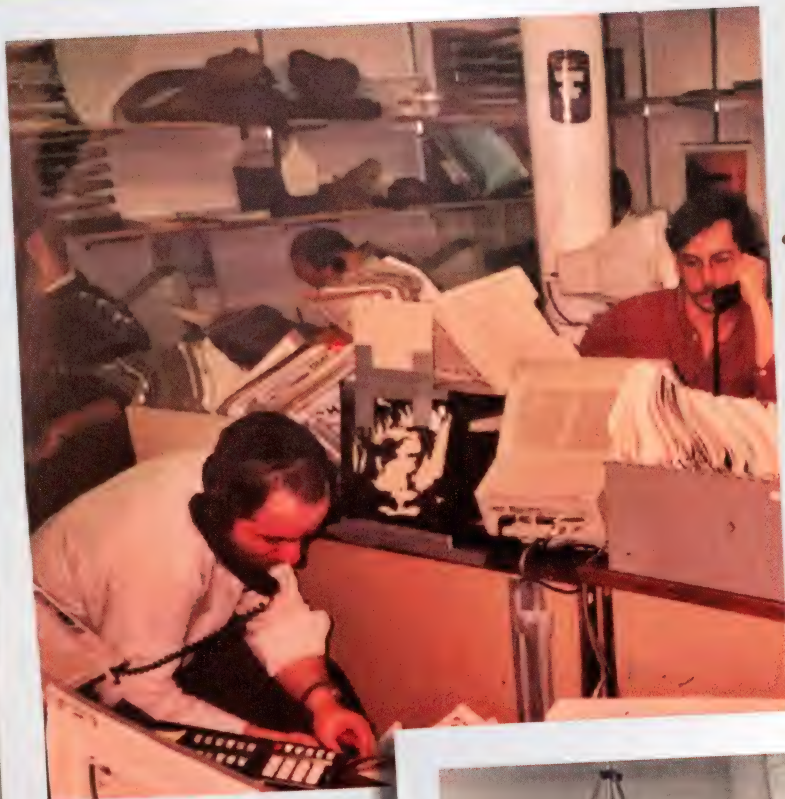

Let me tell you a story...

It all started in 1973, when husband-and-wife partners, Blimie and Herman — the B and H to our B&H — opened a small storefront near City Hall with one employee, Sam Goldstein joined the company in 1978 and eventually became co-owner and President.

Through hard work, a commitment to serving the needs of our customers, and a dedication to fair, honest business dealings, B&H attracted a loyal following of photo, video, and audio enthusiasts.

Over the past 50 years, B&H has become known for many things, among them our industry leading website, the 34th Street SuperStore, education, old-school service, large in-stock assortment, B2B offerings, special events, trade shows, great value, expansive content, YouTube videos, and, of course, our people and expertise.

Today, B&H is the largest non-chain specialty photo, video, and audio retailer in the world. As technology and software evolve, impacting the needs of our customers, B&H has evolved as well, but we have not wavered from our initial commitment: to always put the customer first.

FROM OUR TEAM

JIM MACFADDEN – 30 years of service at B&H

I started when B&H was a true mom-and-pop shop. I was interviewed by the 'pop', Mr. Schreiber. I had no plans of making B&H my career. But I learned quickly that this was more than a little camera store.

Every morning I would get to work and there would be people outside waiting for us to open. We were busy all day, every day. Same on the phones, fielding questions from all over the country. There was something special about B&H that I didn't see anywhere else.

I wondered what makes this place so special? Great prices, great selection, inventory? There was something more. It is a simple formula, which has not changed over time. We were told "Treat the customer right, and they will come back." It starts with respect. If you take the time to listen and only suggest what they need, they'll be back.

I was never pushed to sell anything. I was never given a quota. I never worked on commission. I was only asked to qualify each customer and offer them a solution that fit within their budget. Every interaction was like a conversation between two colleagues rather than a sales opportunity. They would tell me about their project and needs, and I would offer a solution that I would personally be happy with.

One amazing part of being on our events team has been that no matter where I find myself in the world, customers say the same thing, "I love B&H." Hearing that sentiment directly from people from New York to Singapore is a validation for all our hard work.

B&H is still the same mom-and-pop where I interviewed, just bigger!

STEVE SCHWARTZ – 41 years of service at B&H

Besides my family, B&H has been my life. In 1982 I came from my only other job at another camera store that wasn't the most honest, to B&H that was totally honest. I went from telling customers they couldn't ask questions on the toll-free line to B&H where we answered everything believing that if you give good service, the customer will eventually come back. Believe it or not, it was groundbreaking at the time.

Watching the B&H family grow from 10 people to over 2,000 today has been like watching my own kids grow up, and I've grown too over these amazing years.

When I see a long lens or camera on my travels, I always stop and ask if the person got it from B&H. I'm not surprised anymore when 99.9% of them say "yes," and that they get most of their gear from B&H! And then, I'm proud when they share how much they love our company, and I thank them for choosing B&H.

BRINGING OUR VALUES TO LIFE

At B&H, we're about actions and not words. We hate the typical blah, blah, blah. There's a reason why we've been the go-to source for photo, video, and audio expertise for five decades — we're committed to quality and devoted to our customers. Here are seven ways we put our words into action:

Family Owned, with Family Values

We started as a mom-and-pop shop and built our business based on honesty and reliability. We close for the Sabbath and Jewish holidays, despite the missed sales. We put our values above all else. Many things have changed over 50 years, but our values have remained the same since day one.

Our Incredible SuperStore

People come from far and wide to explore our "tech wonderland." Our famous 34th Street SuperStore is truly a special place and travel-worthy destination for everyone interested in photography, videography, and creative technology gear.

Our World-Class Team of Experts

Our extraordinarily well-trained team is comprised of individuals who are often practicing creatives themselves. Many in our organization started on the sales floor. We are tech-heads who love the craft. We're here to educate our customers and share our knowledge. We know what we're talking about.

Old-School, Hands-On Customer Service

At B&H, the customer comes first, second, and third. That means delivering superior value and being there every step of the way, whether someone has a question, problem, or just wants to talk about gear. We're always just a phone call, chat, email, or video chat away!

The Long-Term View

We've never been a selling company. We're a service company. It's about the customer, not the sale. We're not about making a quick buck. We care about what's good for customers for the long term. It's a longer route, but it's a stronger route.

Whatever You Need We've Got It

We offer the widest selection in the market. B&H maintains ample stock of many manufacturers' full product lines, including the obscure and hard-to-find. Whatever you're looking for, you can count on us — we keep it in stock.

Where the Pros Shop

B&H has an established reputation in the industry — The Professional's Source Since 1973. Anyone with true industry expertise knows to come to us. Where the pros go. For 50 years, you go to B&H.

And for the next 50 years...

Always changing:

- Technology
- Shopping Patterns
- Business Conditions
- Mega Pixels, Gigabytes, & Terabytes
- Graphic Cards
- 4K... 8K...

Never changing:

- Be Honest
- Treat People Right
- Know What We're Talking About
- Customers for Life
- Customer not the Sale
- Closed Saturdays

“ We're doing what people used to do 100 years ago. It's the same thing. When you're honest, the customers want to come back. It doesn't matter if you do it with a pencil and paper, or you do it on a computer.”

There's been a lot of new technology, but customer expectations haven't changed. ”
